

Art Wider Curriculum Links
Numeracy / Mathematics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SHAPES: students will have the opportunity by studying the work of Hundertwasser, Kandinsky and other artists to learn the names of shapes through creative way. - 3D SHAPES: students will develop their understanding on 3D shapes by experimenting with pottery - PATTERN/ NUMBER: students will develop their understanding about patterns and numbers by studying the work of Andy Warhol, Jasper Jahns etc
Communication/English <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - EXPRESSIVE WRITING: students will develop their expressive writing by learning how to describe an artwork, writing a story about the artwork they have created. They will be inspired by the work of Marc Chagall.
SMSC/Enrichment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - RELIGIOUS/CULTURAL FESTIVALS: students will inspire by artists and create art and crafts inspired by a range of religious festivals/culture events. - ENRICHMENT: students will have the opportunity to visit art galleries, historical landmarks to broader their horizon
PSHE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - FEELINGS: students will develop their understanding of feelings by expressing the through art and link them with colours by studying colour theory
FEELINGS AND EMOTIONAL WELL BEING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ALL ABOUT ME: students will have the opportunity to learn themselves thought creative way. Through the interactions with various materials and ways of expression students can discover themselves, they can recognise and acknowledge their feelings, increase their self-esteem, reduce stress or anxiety